

Program Director: L. Stephen Lipp

Program Overview

The program is designed to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the digital journalism industry. The curriculum includes courses in digital journalism, digital media, and digital marketing. Students will gain hands-on experience through internships and projects. The program is accredited by the National Association of Broadcasters (NAB) and the National Communication Association (NCA).

The program is designed to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the digital journalism industry. The curriculum includes courses in digital journalism, digital media, and digital marketing. Students will gain hands-on experience through internships and projects. The program is accredited by the National Association of Broadcasters (NAB) and the National Communication Association (NCA).

The program is designed to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the digital journalism industry. The curriculum includes courses in digital journalism, digital media, and digital marketing. Students will gain hands-on experience through internships and projects. The program is accredited by the National Association of Broadcasters (NAB) and the National Communication Association (NCA).